

July, 1925.

8 Wednesday. Fine day. The men finished the turnips and hoed the mangels for the second time. Ella & Eels Miller were picking strawberries in Reister's bush this p.m.

9 Thursday. Lovely day. Ella went to Elmira with Walter and they had their dinner at Jacob King's. They visited Mrs. Elmo King tonight.

10 Friday. Fine day. The men were hoeing corn.

11 Saturday. Fair & quite hot. Aubrey took the day off and took in the Orange Celebration at Ketcheser. Walter cultivated the corn. Aubrey & some of his friends called in tonight.

12 Sunday. Lovely, breezy day. We went to Washwick Church & P. S. this afternoon. Mr. & Mrs. Gus Metz and family of Waterloo and Violet Duttle of Hamilton called in here. Our cousin Salome (Mrs. Art. Kluck) died at Elmira this afternoon. We visited Lincoln Weaver's after supper.
