

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1870.

Our girl Fanny Kaustel has been sick to day, with the same fever that put me to just recovering from. Mother is not able to do anything yet, so I have
been house-maid,
cook, and dishwasher. I find that when one does house
work he cannot do
anything else.
I sent Charley
out to night after my sister. If she comes I will be in a measure relieved.
We are moving
along slowly with our bedding. I hope to get it done in about three days.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1870.

Charley has been
dressing manure on
the ten acre fields for day and still has been harrowing most
of the day.
Mr. & Mrs. Keuffer
took dinner with us
to day. We had quite a pleasant
meal with them.
I have been able to work a little
to day out of door.
It is a very great
convenience to have a kind sister
so near by, especially when in such a
fix as at present.
I am again in possession of great
peace & my soul
is happy & secure.
