

March, 1930.

9 Sunday. Fair. We drove to church with Enoch & Ivin in the car this morning. Grandpa Maurer was here for dinner. Norman Miller spent the day with Vernon and they went to League tonight.

10 Monday. Fair and mild. Walter spent the day in Elmira and had his dinner at Norman Snyder's. Grandpa Krauter came up here today. He came from Elmira with Noah Miller. We got the sap outfit ready today.

11 Tuesday. Rained this morning. Real snowflurries this afternoon. Walter butchered a pig for Mrs. Archibald today and took a load of chopping to Alma this afternoon. Vernon and Grandpa took the sap outfit back to the bush and tapped a few trees. Callers - Sam Stout, Otto & Norman Miller.

This morning we heard a conversation between a man in Schoenectady N. Y. and Admiral Richard Byrd at Dundee N. J. William Howard Taft was buried at Washington
