

1855

1855

January 19 went to Charlestown mills with 38 flour barrels

February

This copy is provided for the purpose of individual research only. All responsibility regarding copyright arising from the use of this copy is assumed by the recipient. Further reproduction or deposit in any other institution cannot be made without the written consent of the Institution's Archivist.

for Mr Beus the roads very poor

Gock drew cord wood that Gonney cut on the drained land beech & maple

2

20 worked at the bed posts Gock thrashed in the forenoon & Gonney in the afternoon

21 went to caintown & heard the Revd Mr Smart preach very stormy in the afternoon

3

22 heavy rain last night rain & snow all day with heavy wind cold & clear at sundown

4

23 Gock went to Brockville with 12 bushel of turneps & Margret & Eliza went with him snowed in the after<sup>noon</sup>

24 Gock went to Brockville with a load of wood sold it to Mr Serret for 11.3 he is to take him 6 load or cord fine day

25 Gock took another load Gonney & me drew fine wood yesterday & to day

26 Gock went with another load to day very stormy with snow and wind all day

27 still snowing the snow fell about 19 inches

28 went to caintown and heard the Revd Mr Robinson from Newbrough preach a Missionary sermon

29 thrashed the peas & oats put 10 bushel ofn a ben for seed put 9 more in the ben for feed

heavy thunder with snow & rain

30 thrashed the poll oats & cleaned them had about 6 bushel very stormy day heavy wind & snow with a great drift

31 began to thrast the little oats Gock & Gonney drew hemlock logs to Colmans saw mill

11