

22 Tue 18 dreadful hot - the heat something terrible. Arthur mowed on the forenoon. I churned. Marjorie swept & cleared up the front room. Kate Riepmger called with the funeral notice Paul picking weeds out of the hay.

Wed 19. Looks like a storm. Paul going to take Marjorie over to the funeral then coming back to rake he got as far as West Wells & she sent him back for fear of the storm he came back as far as Wards then went on the busch to pick berries until the storm came on I put through churning my the storm was something dreadful & I was alone pretty near all through the storm. one great after another struck 3 horses for C. Larkton. the folks at the other house never got started until 20^{mins} to 12 the funeral was coming out of the lane as they got there. Marjorie came back with Riepmger & stayed there for dinner. Arthur came over to tea Thurs 20 - I worked both churning, & put on the crock 10^{lb} lbs. Milton Hill came along & bought it. Paid 18 for the eggs @ 20. 15 for 9. I went after the turkey brought both flocks home & a lot of cloves for the pigs. I picked the potato bugs off they finished the stack at the north of the barn Friday 21 Marjorie got up early to go to Keeble & churned. picked stubble for the fire & cleaned the hen house & cleared up around the hen house coops & boards every direction. worked the butter it was so hard worked some on my blue waist milked all the cows & had two journeys after the turkeys. Hattie came & stayed all night. they are drawing the Lucerne & making a stack near the barn they took a load to Vanderburgh yesterday.

Sat 22 cool north wind yesterday & much rest I swept & cleaned & scrubbed both rooms & scrubbed every board and side. put the butter in the crock just got ready to wash a few things as Mrs. P.
Breddie came & stayed until 4 o'clock just as Mrs. Keel was bringing Marjorie home Marjorie Paul's shirt & left the rest. it looked so like a storm with cutting wheat. would have finished only broke something. Paul helping. Hattie went & got a tooth put on came back with Pat.

Sun 23 high west wind. Fannie came home & came over & called on us. Hattie & Tom went ^{over} to Mon 24 still finished cutting wheat. I churned then went & washed out most of the white clothes had 3 sheels. Marjorie went to Drummondville she wanted to go on to Clifton but it looked so like a storm we killed the little black hen I had it for supper when Marjorie came home she had 4 ³/₄ of butter @ 18. got 25% sugar 19 @ 20. 2 gal. coal oil short for Paul & 1 gal. factory Tue 25 I finished the washing & hung out what & washed yesterday the wind high from the west.
