

November, 1930.

1 Saturday. Cloudy & cold.

This afternoon we had the following men helping with the turnips - Noah Miller, Harvey Reist and Sonny Watts. Orpha Miller spent the afternoon with Ella and was here for supper too. Harvey spent the evening here listening to the radio.

2 Sunday. Raw & cold.

Snowed this afternoon. We all went to Sunday school this morning. Vernon spent the day with Elmer Miller. Homer Henderson called this p.m. Tonight we attended the League Rally. Mrs. Pitman of Kitchener was the speaker. Bert Howlett sang a baritone solo, Ruby Bricker and Vesta Keil played a piano and violin duet. Lydia & Alma Thur and Ruth Schwiendt sang a trio and every member on the program was excellent.
