Tuesday July 14 Dull in morning. Fine and hot in afternoon. Nolle and I came over to our work to-day. We were hauling in hay all day in the afternoon. Mrs. R. Munro, her son, and Edna Hamilton were at Uncle Andrew's this afternoon and went home to-night.

Wednesday July 15 Fine and very hot. Hauling in hay all day.

Thursday July 16 Fine and very hot. Hoening corn and picking currants. I came home to-night and learned part a time on the violin.

Friday July 17. Wet for a short time in morning. Fine and cool during rest of day. Hoening corn and coaling hay.

Saturday July 18 Dull and cold. Uncle Andrew and Aunt Minnie went to town to-day. I came home to-night. Papa Mamma and Nolle were in town. Hoening and putting poison on potatoes.
