

Thurs 12. ^{will finished a pig it weighed 149} beautiful day over head but terribly suddenly & cold. the last day of the county fair & churned & worked the butter right up 5:34 Friday 13. Miss Angalet called to get board for the new teacher. I made cookies. & boiled pumpkins for pie tomorrow & swept & dusted the school house I'll ploughed out the potatoes Paul helped to pick & pick put on the cellar. they came over at 3 o'clock & ploughed out our Paul picked until after dark Sat 14. We borrowed 32th from Will. Marjorie baked bread mixed it then went to Chippawa after Mrs Pound & the children. I cleaned the floor & got dinner churned a small churning made four pies & bant Marjorie dressed a chicken after dark Sun 15 a beautiful day until after supper when we got ready to take Mrs Pound home it started to rain. so she gave it up. Darkers family to Hills they took to after home with them. we had spare ribs for dinner. high wind tonight. Paul harvested the potatoes over when he came home. Marjorie took down 5th butter @ 24. got a 1th fresh biscuits 1th cheese rest on the book. 90th she debt down 1/10 Mon 16. cold west wind but nice sunshine Miss Grey started on this school. came here to board. Mrs Pound & the children went home after dinner. Marjorie drew her home wind changed to cold in the night. I made two grape pies. Baked pig feed Paul took over some of the potatoes the teacher has some to bed earlier tonight she is to bread

Tues 17 cold wind north east. the teacher not very well her throat troubles her Marjorie went after she ducks the & Paul got the rest of the fruit from Kieingers. I churned & worked the butter Arthur & his father scraped the pond holes. & George & James & Will & Goble & scraping Wed 18 started to rain just as the teacher came home for her dinner & rained all the afternoon a warm rain touch west. the ducks are making them selves at home puddling around I made a cornstarch puddling for dinner & Marjorie got our cabbage one more. the teacher is better tonight Paul & I are shelling corn brought & the teacher & Marjorie are chatting in the room. I started jims mittens got 3 rounds on them Thurs 19 looks like rain & near dinner time it comes down & at night grows like a summer shower Grey throat no better no matter what she does Arthur ploughed some. I churned. Marjorie fixing her black skirt. Arthur came in for the Friday 20 The wind something fearful the worst all fall blowing from sometimes on the night & continued all day we sent the teachers dinner down to her. I made two pumpkin pies & last night I made golly from cakes. Marjorie took the teacher to Chippawa. took 4th @ 24. 1/14. 41 on the book. 25. Miss Grey is in 13 cheese 15 factory 10 sleep brush 20. Paul swept the school house & went to Reed