

Wednesday December 7, 1921.
I delivered mail with the two
Gips and the roads are bad

Thursday Dec. 8, 1921.
I delivered mail; on the first part I forgot the Mitchell Bag bag and took it down from Lewis Owen's on the second part.

The ground is frozen and the grass roads are rather better

Friday Dec 9, 1921.

I delivered mail with the two Gips. I tried to get some one to deliver mail but could not I wanted to go to Chatham tomorrow
The day was fine but rather cold.

Saturday Dec. 10, 1921.

As I could not get any one to go on the route I went myself.
The day was fine but it thawed and made the roads bad again

Sunday Dec 11, 1921.

I went to church in the morning
Roy and John went and sat forth the
This day was rather fine.
