

May, 1931.

19 Tuesday. Fair and quite warm. Harry & his trucked's head of fat cattle to Toronto for Walter and Walter went with him. Vernon cultivated the summer fallow. Ella did the washing and planted the sweet corn in the garden. Walter had his tea at H. Thur's. Ed. Bolender called.

20 Wednesday. Showery this a.m. Cloudy & cool this afternoon. The men cleaned the stables this morning and Walter sprained his foot so Ella helped Vernon plant the potatoes this afternoon. Mr. Hill of Dergus called.

21 Thursday. Fair and cool. The men worked up the mangel ground. Walter sowed the mangels this afternoon and Vernon cultivated the corn land. Ella cleaned the kitchen. This evening Walter, Ella & Vernon went up to Jim. Weaver's. Queen got a little colt tonight and it died two days later.