

Saturday 14th. Fine and warm snow melting very fast. Father and Robert chopping. Fred chopping fire wood. Phil and me went to Stafford's cleared up 12 bushels of wheat. Assessor came along in the morning 236 acres of land 3 dead of stock raised at 179 Bunches.

Sunday 15th. Warm and pleasant.

Monday 16th. Very warm snow melting fast. Father chopping. Robert thrashing. Fred after firewood. chopping barn logs.

Tuesday 17th. Warm. Dull and raining at intervals during the day. Boiling 19 buckets of soap for vinegar. Father chopping when suitable. Robert thrashing when fine. Fred went to help raise black smut. Shop in morning. Phil drawing house logs and fire wood. 4 yards starting at 8^o per yd. paid. lost yesterday.

Wednesday 18th. Thunder last night. fine and clear this morning. a few drops of rain in the evening. Father chopping. Robert ill. Fred thrashing. Phil drawing barn logs. chopping logs.

Thursday 19th. Rain in the morning, fine and warm during the day. Father etc. Phil digging potatoes. Fred thrashing oats. chopping barn logs. planted 54 and 24 peach stones.

Friday 20th. All of wet. snark raising. morning dull afternoon fine and hot. Phil drawing logs. Father and Fred cutting fire wood. Robert and me gardening. Fred went to the store a pound of coffee and a pound of pepper 2.3d. former the yorber.

Saturday 21st. Fine. Robert and Father digging potatoes. afternoon me and Robert planted potatoes. onion and doree. 12 an oz of onion seed. chopping barn logs myself in the morning. Phil drawing all day. Fred thrashing. Sunday 22nd. Fine and cool.

Monday 23rd. Sharp white frost last night. Warm and fine. Father and Robert digging potatoes. Fred thrashing. Phil drawing logs. bad for the ache.