

April, 1929.

20 Saturday. Miserable drizzly day. Walter went to Elmira this afternoon and Vernon called at Reists. Enoch Schneider called here.

21 Sunday. Fair, cool day. Conference Sunday. We went to Sunday school this morning and went down to Grandpa Reister's and spent the day there.

22 Monday. Fine day. Cold wind. The men picked stones this morning. This p.m. Vernon was cultivating in the field beside the lane. Ella fixed the hot bed and sowed lettuce, cabbage, cauliflower, asters and balsams also planted the sweet peas and cleaned up the garden and lawn.

23 Tuesday. Lovely day. Walter got a drill from Mr. Drimie this morning. Vernon was cultivating. Walter was sowing mixed grain this afternoon. Ella washed and boiled soap. Callers were - Sam Horst and Andrew Henderson.