

Thursday April 14, 1921.

I went down to Wallaceburg and the Baldoon Farm to day.

Roy delivered mail on the whole route with Dick and Charles & Co. Mr English went to Chatham for the manure spreader and took home my mail wagon to day.

Repair of Spreader $36.35 + Mail to $10 = $46.35

It sprinkled rain during the day and the roads are getting bad.

Friday April 15, 1921.

I delivered mail on all the route with Dick and Charles & Co.

Mr English worked at repairing yard fences and pig yards and Roy helped him.

The day was mild and sprinkled rain at times. The roads were not so good as yesterday.

Saturday Apr. 16, 1921.

I delivered mail on all but the Club part. It rained and the day was cold and very disagreeable.

Roy went to Chatham and came back on the last car. Charlie and Toob came at the
