

November, 1930

3 Monday. The ground is covered with snow this morning. Cloudy & cold. Two carpenters, Martin Bauman and son Eno came this morning and are working at the silo roof.

Walter spent the forenoon at L. Miller's and killed a cattle head for Enoch Schneider this afternoon. Eva & spent the evening with Ella.

4 Tuesday. Lovely day. The carpenters finished here about 2.30 p.m. and went to Stange's. Walter & Vernon helped to finish Noah's turnips this afternoon and Vernon harrowed the rest of ours out when they got home.

5 Wednesday. Cloudy and turned very cold and windy. The men finished the turnips this afternoon. Noah Miller, Sonny Watts and Harvey Reist helped and they brought in 10 loads. Opha Miller spent the afternoon with Ella and was here for supper too.
