

Dorothy got home on the late train. Has a fine new coat, new hat, new dress & new shoes. She and her father went over to deliver a parcel at Mrs. Ferguson's after the train.

April 18th - My birthday and a nice day - somewhat Wednesday hilder. Studied a little. Mrs. Graham came in the morning and bought me a wonderful bunch of sweet-peas (4 bunches) pink and mauve. Dorothy gave me a new rose hat and napkin ring and Frances called at noon to give me a pretty little handkerchief she made for me. Grace sent me a crepe de chine nightie and Charlie and Allice gave me a very pretty bowl. Dorothy had arranged a surprise party - and they began arriving about 3.30. Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Beattie (one of the conspirators who helped Dorothy make sandwiches down at her home.) Mrs. Litch,
