

to get on the train.
Got to bed about 3. a.m. tired and all used up with colds. Had no trouble with the Immigration Office. did not have to get out of bed. only answered a lot questions and pay $16.00 head tax. Got up about 8 a.m. crossing Michigan. put our watches back one hour. arrived at Lansing at 10.10 a.m. where they make the Res cars + trucks. seems like a large city. at Battle Creek at 11.30. where they make the corn flakes also went through Flint Mich. where the Chevrolet Cars are made. the plant must have covered thousands of acres. arrived at Chicago at 4.10 P.M. about 80 minutes late. The weather seemed about the same as home with a few inches snow most of the way across Mich. until we neared Chicago. in Chicago it was mild and foggy. Got our sleeper section to San Diego cost $42.53 and it was $11.15 from Hamilton to Chicago.
