

October, 1926.

15 Friday. Fair. The men finished the mangels today and brought in 1 load of turnips.

Ella cleaned up some of the gardens and brought in the gladiolus bulbs.

16 Saturday. Dull & showery.

The men brought in 2 loads of turnips this morning and Vernon & Aubrey plowed for a while this afternoon but had to give up on account of the rain. Aubrey called at Schmeck's for the butter and Emanuel Rowman called to settle for the flax.

17 Sunday. Cloudy & cold.

First little snowflurry of the season this morning. Charles Miller was here for dinner. We went to Woodland's church & S. School this afternoon where Isaac Lachraaw of Bridgeport preached. We went over to Ezra's lot tea. Colson's, Harold's and Merwin Smith were there too.

On Oct. 6 th. to Mr. & Mrs. Frank Hamel a daughter. Constance Mary.
