fine but cold Mamie and I went down to Cockrill for dinner I went to Willie Kirkland and got his note for 31.50 due July 1918 Ballance due on letter carrier outfit. came back and got Mamie and came home.

very cold around Village in the forenoon. Nellie came up to get the horse shod stayed for dinner I took the one horse sleigh and went to Lyndhurst Station after a load of new Williams Sewing Machines snowed hard all the afternoon around home in the evening cold day I uncrated a couple of sewing machines in the forenoon. I went over and carried over the front room Bed stead and Mamie and I set it up in the afternoon fine but cold around home in the forenoon Mamie and I went down to Lenard Leabeaters in the afternoon and traded Sewing Machines with them for 25.00 and there machine we went to N. J. Simpsons and traded with him for 27.00 and went from there to Geraldo and stayed for a while and went to Turner Simpsons for tea sold him a 3 sect Harrow for $13.00 and came home.

The End