

July Friday 9 1926

Felt pretty weak but Lloyd Ross helped me on milk route so I got along alright. Helped Alex pitch our tent in the back yard and had a real sleep afterwards.

Saturday 10

Stayed home from town at night for a change and went to bed early as I was feeling rather tired and weak after my experience at the hospital.

Sunday 11

Russell Willetts and three of the boys came down after me and gave me a fast ride home for supper in his Dodge. Ross drove me down to the Bankers and then brought Jean & Ross with him when he drove me home. Jean gave me a small parcel not to be opened <sup>until</sup> <sub>13</sub>

July Monday 12 1926

The mysterious birthday present Jean gave me last night turned out to be a swell set of cuff links. Had the pleasure of spending part of my 21st birthday with Jean at the reception for the new minister, Mr. Wilson and also his family. Spent time with me and Mrs. A. Taylor.
