

April, 1930.

12 Saturday. Lovely mild day. Walter went to Floradale & Elmira this afternoon. This morning he had callers - Enoch Schneider, Sam Umbach, Kenneth Atkinson and Eph. Snyder.

Vernon was in the bush all day. Vic and Lew and Mr. Adolph were here for tea. Heard the frogs tonight.

13 Sunday. Fine day. We all went to S.S. and church this afternoon and had company for tea - Mr. and Mrs. Norman Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Weber and son George. Charlie & Aulta come after supper. Andrew Schmidt committed suicide ^{this morning} by drowning himself in the cistern at his home in Elmira.

14 Monday. Clear and fine with cold wind. We saw a big butterfly yesterday. The snow is all gone now.

Vernon was boiling this morning and Walter this afternoon. Earl and Ella spent the evening here.
