

and spy as a cricket. She walked up to see Miss Battersby this morning, over here and back this afternoon and when I went down to night she was up at Church with Aunt Alice. She is very busy working on the Referendum just now and although she is a great temperance worker, she agrees with me that it would be a mistake to try to make prohibition too tight. Aunt Alice takes the same view of the case.
Roy came up to night to stay over. Thanks giving

Saturday October 11th

It rained a little this morning and drizzled quite a lot.
Dad and I spent the fore noon rigging up box stalls over in the west bay of the old barn under the rails.
We put up yesterday. Frank cleaned out the fertilizers parts of his drill and put them away. We all three spent the after noon moving the thrashed alkies into the barn and putting it up on the rails. we got about a half of it in. Gladys had 13 pigs this after noon. 3 died.

Sunday October 12th

Frank and I went down to Sunday school and Dad, Cuah and Sid. drove down to Church. This was Thanks giving service and they had the Church very prettily decorated. Mr. Repard (I think that was the name) from Jarvis took the service. I stayed at Aunt Alice's for dinner but came home for tea. I went up to the Davis where Mary had been for dinner and she and I walked around the hill stopping at Miss McQueen's on our way back. I went down town to night. Mr. King Roy and Vernon were all over this after noon. Friday

Monday October 13th - Thanks giving Day - Dad, Frank and I spent the morning and part of the after noon moving the rest of the alkies straw into the barn. When we got it in I dug up the dahlia roots and Frank started to put the door of the barn back which was broken off when we were thrashing. Cuah and Sid. have been down town all day visiting. I went down to night to see if there was any band practice but there wasn't, so I went down to Aunt Alice's Mary and Aunt Mary were there playing bridge. They had nominations at Victoria today and Jack with drew and left it to Pratt and Cridland.

Supper was in this morning after thrashing hands. Lovely day
