

Th. 1.

April 1st 1892.

another lovely, but high winds from the west.
we spent the forenoon in viewing the deserted part of the city, which is considered extremely good as James St. & Onondaga St.
We returned home and are at present sitting in our room, chewing gum as hard as we can with the expectation of going to the Meeting Opera House to see Bill Nye's greatest production, entitled, Cadi we are just going out for another stroll, time is just 4:15 P.M. We returned to our boarding house had our tea and went to see Bill Nye in Opera House after, we carried trunk to station in readiness for the morning

Sat. 2.

April 2nd 1892.

I arose at 4:45 am, to catch the 5:40 am train for Cape Vincent. The morning was very mild but the sky overcast having the appearance of a storm. Johnny Robinson accompanied me to the Station to see me off for home Camden East, Ont. when the train started I bid him Good Bye and boarded the train, I arrived at Cape Vincent at 10:30 am, left there in an Ice Boat for Kingston arriving there at 3 o'clock P.M. The Wind was very heavy and from the South, thus making it favorable for all who came over with me. Passengers numbering about seven in all