

October, 1928.

14 Sunday. Changeable. We went to church & P. S. this afternoon and Walter and Ella were over at Milton Ege's for tea. Vernon visited Addison Keits this morning, had his tea at Joe Stange's and went to League with Emerson.

15 Monday. Fair and quite warm. Ella did the washing. The men plowed. Walter went to Henry Nevert's ~~place~~ <sup>funeral</sup> this afternoon. He was buried at Woolwich. Mr. & Mrs. Ezra Maurer and Les. Bolander visited us tonight.

16 Tuesday. Foggy and drizzly. The men were plowing. Ella was canning pears.

17 Wednesday. Drizzly, nearly day. Walter & Ella went to Kitchener today and had dinner and tea at Edith's and Ella stayed for the night.

18 Thursday. Drizzly. Walter & Vernon went to Kitchener today and Vernon went to Hamilton with Merwin and Frank. August Weber, Norman Dwyler's and Charlie Miller spent the evening here.