

April

WEDNESDAY 29

1874

Spent most of the day in Brampton at the Spring Show of the Peel Agric Society a very good display of horses and bulls. We took the 3rd prize $4.00 on our bull - "Oliver Twist". A very large crowd of people present.
 Nearly as cold as a winter day. Blowing a strong North West

THURSDAY 30

Plowing sod, finished the orchard field and started plowing the sod field behind the barns

Our folks went to Brampton and bought at J. B. Stead's bankrupt sale ~~two~~ pairs of woollen blankets at $4.00 per pair and other things equally low

May

FRIDAY 1

1874

It is May but all earth is owl-gay, there is scarcely any signs of life in vegetation yet. Today has been the warmest day this year Was plowing sod, turned about 1 1/2 acres. Rebuilt the part of line fence next Mr. D. Wiggins Spent evening at Choir practice in W.M. Church Brampton. The Officers of Edmonton Lodge were installed tonight by Dr. C. Y. Moore

SATURDAY 2

Received a letter from Viney she is in good spirits but very poor health. She thinks Oshtawa is a fine place. Commenced the spring seeding by sowing 9 1/2 acres of black oats, 30 bush our new iron harrow works capitally indeed. Had a call from Mr. Arthur Harris, he is a jolly Irishman
