

February, 1927

14 Monday. Snowed and stormed last night. Milder, raw and foggy today. Walter took a load of grist to Floradale this afternoon. Callers - Peter Martin, John Schweitzer, Lincoln Edler and Louis Miller.

15 Tuesday. Snowflurries this morning. Turned out lovely this afternoon. We butchered 2 pigs here for Edler's and Lincoln Edler was here all day and helped. Clarence Dancombe was here for dinner.

Other callers - Earl Miller, Henry Atkinson, Norman & Homer Henderson and Louis Miller. Fred Joehner was buried this afternoon at Floradale.

16 Wednesday. Stormy this morning. Mild & foggy. Rain tonight. Walter butchered 2 pigs at Louis Miller's today and Vernon and Ella went down for supper and the evening. Grandpa Maurer was our caller.