

ing clouds and would be immediately followed accompanied by driving showers more like than rain. I have sat around the house all morning, drawing and playing with the kids except ing the chores and going out every hour or so basket full of bon-factory woods, with which I kept both stoves stoked all day. It makes the hot fire but has to be watched closely replenished frequently. Mary & Harry B. started out four o'clock to go to see Winnie Shand who has returned from the Lincoln Hospital. They just got us when they met Dad & Jim so came back with Dad. Could over-tell me to go over some first thing morning as there was a load of chest nut coal in said that Mrs. Jones is dying having been furious us so that it took four of them to keep her in bed. a cablegram yesterday from Mr. Purko saying that the Master's certificate and only awaits the judge's Mary & Harry B. went up to the Shand's when Dad nd got home about six. Winnie is doing well.

day October 26th at over home this morning about 8 o'clock but Dad and I didn't get started down for the coal very he had a lot of chores to do. Enah has down town matters all night and Frank had to go to work at Martins. We went around by the mill as a grit and I went to the Planning Mill and got storm sack and took them up to Hall to glass us we were delayed a little down at the coal car as Mr. Bride was telling us what a time they were getting the water lists fixed up as they had a on Jim Dixon looking after some of it but he had stolen Jim's horses and he was out with constable looking for them and neglecting the it was just noon when we got back to the we put the team in there and Dad & I had to It began to rain just about noon and soon turned snow and snowed hard all the after noon for awhile after dinner to see if it would clear up but as it didn't I huddled up in Dad's machine and came home with the coal. I had to move a whole pile of old Sunday school shingles before I could unload the them I took the team back home and got Dad's Chop at the I was pretty cold and tired by the time I finally got home to stay. Mrs. Jones is still alive and the doctor says now she may live for quite awhile yet.