

March, 1929

23 Saturday Raw east wind.

Yesterday 5 men - Andrew, Norman and Homer Henderson, Lige Bridge and Russel Dobbertin opened up this road for cars. They were all day shovelling snow on the piece of road between our lanes and where Mook's buildings used to be. Today the men worked around the barn this morning and this p.m. Walter went to Elmira. Laura Miller visited Ella today and was here for tea Norman came over also after tea and we played crokinole tonight.

24 Sunday. Raw and cold.

We went to church and Sunday school this morning. Vernon spent the day at Otto Miller's and Walter and Ella visited at Jim Weaver's
