

Thursday March 16, 1922

I delivered to the Bay with Dick and Kent delivered to the Club and round the Townline.

The day was fine and the roads are getting good.

In the evening Kent pruned apple trees

Friday March 17, 1922.

I delivered on the whole route except the Townline which Kent delivered.

We got the Dover Centre mail and I went to Dover Centre for it. Kent and Hip worked at breaking horses.

The day was fine but very cold and the greater part of the roads are good.

Saturday March 18, 1922.

I delivered mail with Dick on the whole route except the Townline. Kent and Hip delivered on the Townline while breaking the colts Lloyd and George.

I spoke to Jack Kinne at the store in the morning re mail route; he said that they had no notion of tendering for it.
