Geriatric Aphorisms—No. 9.

If there is retinal arteriosclerosis, there is a general diffused arteriosclerosis.

A primary aortic insufficiency is produced by dilation of the ascending aorta.

In acute gastritis with active fermentation the gases produced press upward upon the diaphragm causing palpitation and gastric asthma. It is the height of folly to attempt to repress the belching up of the gas.—Nascher; Amer. Med.

Weather

Temp.

Warm & thawing rained quite a lot this forenoon, I took Melba to school & the roads was a fright snow banks that the horse could hardly plod through without falling & breaking his neck, then I saw that I need six inches deep.
Melba had dinner at Mrs Belize's then gone down to Mrs M^o Lays to stay all night. Bell came in this
