

the first. Took care of my butter and did chores.

Got a letter from Rosa and one from J. D. Milburn.

Jane Hutton staid overnight.

Wednesday 11th. Snow in the forenoon clouds broken in the afternoon.

Coloured some yarn scarlet and did my ironing, fried cakes for tea. Wrote to Mrs.
Brown and Cyrus.

Thursday 12th. Baked four loaves of bread and three pumpkin pies, put some yarn to color in buttermilk dye. In the afternoon took my sewing thing and went up to the Barbers for awhile. A fine day.

Friday 13th. Butchered and tried out 56^{1/2} lbs. lard and got the heads cleaned. Two young gentlemen
