ELECTORS OF NORTH ONTARIO

By a peculiar combination of circumstances you are about to be called upon to select a representative in Parliament and the responsibility at all times is more than ordinarily. So now the position of [?] and parties is widely different from what it was when you were last called upon to vote. Important changes have taken place. Two administrations have fallen and are now succeeded by one which as a Government has no antecedents and the future policy of which is yet unknown hence challenges neither your support nor condemnation. You have therefore more [?] to deal with the men who claim your confidence and support and as you know nothing [?] the Policy of Administration. Be more careful that your representative is worthy of your confidence. Although somewhat late in coming before you as a candidate for your votes I still feel [?] ought not to hesitate in taking the position. I am confident in the convictions that the [?] entertain are those of a great majority of electors of this riding [riding]. I have been opposed to the late administration. I believed the assumption on the terms they did was an abandonment of principles that would not be countenanced or sustained and the result justified my opinion. They fell - they justly incurred the odium that [??]. The policy of the present Administration being yet imperfectly known is not open to discussion fully but my political are known. I presume to [?] every elector in the riding and of this there can be no mistake. I am prepared to support any Administration without referent to party whose measures I can apply.

George Currie, Prince Albert

Fair tree whose curving branches form
 A beacon mark to guide my way
 While struggling neath the noontide ray
 Thy form my willing fingers trace
 With memory even finds a place
 O may that holy sacred tree
 On which the Saviour bled and died
 Be [?] both to you and me
 Our beacon mark, our only guide
 For those who keep the cross in sight
 Fail not to choose their path aright
 Evil company
 Why should I join with those in play
 In whom I've no delight
 Who curse and swear but never pray
 Who call ill names and fight
 God hath a voice that even is heard
 In the peal of the thunder, the chirp of a bird
 It comes in torrent, all rapid and strong
 In the streamlets soft gush as it ripples along
 It breathes in the zephyr just kissing the bloom
 It lives in the rush of the sweeping [?]
 Let the hurricane whistle or [?] rejoice
 What do they tell thee but God hath a voice.
