

mountable and drove back after tea to go with the band gley's serenade. I called in at the farm for Aunt Mary Alice who walked over this afternoon. I found the band up in the room and Bessy Moon gave me for my share in last summer's activities I up to Mr. Bagley's about nine o'clock and him by surprise when we started to play on the We took Ed. Moon up with us to present him band's name with a gold-headed cane with his and 50 years service engraved on it. He hardly what to say but was very pleased. He said he had because he wanted to but he made himself because right he wasn't doing justice to the honor. Mr. Smith er and told us about the early days of the as he was a member 60 years ago. He said it enjoyed about 1860 the same time that the town near town hall which is the same hall that is lock tower now. At that time Dover had several ing industries including a boot & shoe and a wagon factory, and the mechanics in them d most of the hand boys. He told us about Peter the world renowned cornetist who was here in Dover by most the first leaders. Lovely day.

Tuesday November 3rd

I spent the day over at Iron. Walker's ploughing the would have hired me for two or three days but I didn't want to take the time. In a corner to help Mary here this morning and is staying all night. Cecil Lee after me to paint an enlarged label on one of their mash bags to take down to the Royal Fair but I hadn't better take the time to do it. Another beauty

Wednesday November 4th

I went over home this forenoon to see if I could some of them to help me haul off my corn stalks & Erskine were off looking for potatoes which are and going up in price and Frank was away a tractor getting something done to it. I waited till Lorne and read a batch of letters from Mr. Park to get before the judge soon now and expects in the judge wants an extended argument on her He has a counsel appointed for me and on it would be the duty of my counsel to argue breaking of it; but Mrs. Park's instructed her not my wish and I had to write him for her evidence in writing. He says the ship is