out for the teacher

Thurs 3 A terrible day gets worse towards night - wind north east - when I fed the hens I went to barn the snow but on one like hail turned to snow & drifted. I fell terribly mean in the afternoon & all night. They had a terrible time doing the chores

Friday 4. I lay on bed nearly all day I sick in my stomach got a card from Mrs. Beyer wanting Marjorie to come over rather a nice day Bert & the girls did not come. the girls came over in the evening

Sat 5 bitter cold west wind. Marjorie mixed the bread & I baked it. Will took her to Chippawa & the children for a drive Gordon came home looked hard up got about frogs she got my Bricks codliver oil a lb biscuits 23^d fish Lilly over in the afternoon. Will took Hattie up to the Greens to tea & then in the evening the boys & he went to Pet for the evening Arthur took Fannie & Olly home road not broke much

Sat 6 better better cold they say 14 at General Portland it was 8 bells you over the river it certainly was a bad day like your bread in the back kitchen blowing & drifting I am so glad Paul is here to do the chores. The children never cut one good stick of wood just about frogs if Paul had not broke up fine Hattie over in the evening & we enjoyed it. I got up every hour & made fire
