

Boston January 1907

- Thu Jan 10th cloudy high wind from South West and cold. Sarah was in the dirty cloaths
- Fri Jan 11th cloudy and cool. Sarah was here doing her house work. Walters wife called this evening
- Sat Jan 12th cloudy and soft. about an inch of snow on the ground this morning it going away fast. Walter was in this evening he was telling me Sarah Ward was dead she was the last of James O'Connell family of girls
- Sun Jan 13th cloudy and cool East Wind it threaten rain or snow but none has come
- Mon Jan 14th cloudy and soft. I went to the Post Office in the fore noon. after noon went up to Walters to see his sick girl she is sick enough not much hopes of getting well I heard that Mahlon Gibson died last night
- Tue Jan 15th cloudy and cool. about an inch of snow fell last night. I had some old friends call to see me Edwin Mills and John Nelson

Boston January 1907

- Wed Jan 16th cloudy and cool. the sky looks like a storm Sarah was here she says Dena is dead she died at ten o'clock to day. I feel sorry for Walter and Ella they were greatly taken up with the girl
- Thu Jan 17th cloudy most of the day. Samuel Peters boy brought my shot gun home
- Fri Jan 18th cloudy foggy soft day I was at church at Walters girls funeral there was a large procession for a small child
- Sat Jan 19th cloudy and mild. rain last night Sarah was here this after noon.
- Sun Jan 20th high wind and spits of snow and cold. I went to church the first for some time lately.
- Mon Jan 21st cloudy and cold 14 deg above zero this morning I had nobody in to day but Walter he was in for the key
- Tue Jan 22nd a snowey. there was about five inches of snow on the ground this morning and it has been snowing most of the day William McIntosh was in cloaths to wash