

Aug 9. th 1892.

continued and to spend the evening at the Misses Parson's. had an enjoyable time the Misses Patersons were there from Kingston.

Wed 10. Another hot day thunder showers passing over in all directions. There was a great deal of thunder during the night. had tea at Mrs Cowan Miss English and Miss Mackie school teachers from Kingston were there, also and Mr & Mrs James Harding. the evening was spent enjoyably.

Thur. 11. Today is a little cooler, but drizzling mostly all day quite cool to night, wind north, was at Mrs Cowan again to night.

Aug 12. th 1892.

Fri. 12. Cool and windy sky heavily clouded, and drizzling rain at intervals, continuing so all day.

Sat 13. Raining in the morning, but not so much all day as yesterday, a very heavy shower visited Kingston, was there to night with Mr Jas Harding and came here in the rain at about one o'clock.

Sun. 14. Lovely day, after so much rain, was at Mr Harding's today had a lovely time.

Mon. 15. Another fine day women taking advantage of the fine weather.

Tue. 16. Coolly today a little warmer than yesterday but just the just could be expected this time of the year.