

To the bank this morning and we didn't do any thing much but Chas as it was dead. This after noon they cut some of it up and got a lot of first the rest of the morning. Lloyd Phillips came over and got a load of hay class fire wood out of it. After dinner I put a lot of fresh straw in but he had half a load of Porrit and another fellow with him so we didn't have the chicken house and helped Dad fix a pen in the corner of the old to help him put it on. This after noon Dad, Frank and I wrote to Uncle Sam to put the calves into. Lively day, fairly sunny and not too cold, looks like snow Stab. for his birth day. and I went over to Martins with the last Frank borrowed from Art. Leambury the other day. I saw Mr. Bailey and him telling me that he didn't think a mash was the right thing at all for laying. We spent most of the morning hattening up the calf pen and Dad.
 a hen, while Chas told me to feed it so its hard to tell what to do exactly put the window in. This after noon he put the surcingle & bridle
 Dad. and I hooked Joe & Ginger to the bobs and went down to feed Uncle on Upprey. She didn't like it at all at first but once he got started he walked Shad little but we were too late for to night's mail. Dick and Wiggins down to the corner and back alright but sweat up a lot. When we got rode over as far as the corner with us and then walked on around the hill back I did a few chores and Dad and Frank got some more apple wood.
 we give Uncle nice a ride home too. We also brought some lumber over. Cousins Hall & Phoebe came over and about four o'clock. Frank & I drove from Tommy Gilless for John Leambury as Chas asked us to on our way them home we also got the mail and a couple of horses to feed the calves down. We had great difficulty to night in trying to catch & lead naught and Charlie Butte was in at noon to see Dad. about some horse. It has drive him into his stall and at last by running him through the deep snow till he been cloudy and very soft all day. Looks very much like a storm was tied out he went in of his own accord. Snowed an inch or two last night and when rather cold and blustery all day.

Thursday January 22nd

I did chores this morning and cleaned the straw out of the chicken again but we couldn't take him out so just left him there all morning house and also sat in the dining room for awhile to catch Liddams if she must have gone through some violent exercise, probably trying to get loose he wake up coughing and put in the time reading "Farmers Advocate" as when we went in at noon he was wringing wet. Dad. also trimmed Dad. and Frank saved down the old Northern Spy in the fig yard his front feet and had to resort to chastisement to make him lie down

Friday January 23rd

We spent most of the morning hattening up the calf pen and Dad.
 a hen, while Chas told me to feed it so its hard to tell what to do exactly put the window in. This after noon he put the surcingle & bridle
 Dad. and I hooked Joe & Ginger to the bobs and went down to feed Uncle on Upprey. She didn't like it at all at first but once he got started he walked
 Shad little but we were too late for to night's mail. Dick and Wiggins down to the corner and back alright but sweat up a lot. When we got
 rode over as far as the corner with us and then walked on around the hill back I did a few chores and Dad and Frank got some more apple wood.
 we give Uncle nice a ride home too. We also brought some lumber over. Cousins Hall & Phoebe came over and about four o'clock. Frank & I drove
 from Tommy Gilless for John Leambury as Chas asked us to on our way them home we also got the mail and a couple of horses to feed the calves
 down. We had great difficulty to night in trying to catch & lead naught and Charlie Butte was in at noon to see Dad. about some horse. It has
 drive him into his stall and at last by running him through the deep snow till he been cloudy and very soft all day. Looks very much like a storm was tied out he went in of his own accord. Snowed an inch or two last night and when rather cold and blustery all day.

Saturday January 24th

I was raining when we got up this morning. Turned to snow about nine o'clock and snowed till noon. Dad. put the harness and bridle on Upprey