

October, 1929.

5 Saturday. Fine autumn day. Walter went to Floradale this morning and picked apples this afternoon. Vernon was plowing. Callers - Frank Fairweather, Ed. Frank and Emerson & Rose.

6 Sunday. Fine day. We all went to church and Sunday school this morning and had company for tea - Mr. & Mrs. Colson Jefferson, Roy and Lois, Mrs. Jefferson, Jr. Mrs. Hebel and Glenn and Mr. J. Huras.

7 Monday. Cloudy & cold & windy. Ella did the washing, dug the gladiolus bulbs and planted tulips. Walter went to the Monthly Fair and had his dinner at Graetz Kreuter's and brought Aunt Elizabeth home with him.

8 Tuesday. Cold & cloudy. Ella & Aunt Elizabeth put up the quilt today. Mr. Stevenson (book agent) was here for dinner. Vernon plowed all day.
