

- Wed June 24. Fair untill evening. damp east wind went to Garden Party at Rectory started to rain at 10 P.M. Cleared $60. ^{W. Martin cut grass. 75}
- Thurs June 25. Fine and misty rain untill noon, rained heavily in night.
- Fri June 26. Fine and bright, cool. called at Rectory in evening. $1 for garden Party. Mr. C. called in morning. two tons Coal. 15.25 per ton.
- Sat June 27. Fine untill evening a light shower. Strawberries 17 cts.
- Sun June 28. Fine and quite cool. at morning church. at Methodist in evening to hear Mrs. Fralich's farewell. Willie and Mary called
- Mon June 29. Fine and bright but cool. Strawberries 15 cts.
- Tue June 30. Fine bright and cool. berries 18 cts. Mrs D. and I for a walk.
- Wed July 1. Fine but dull and cool, a heavy shower about 9.30.
Field day. proceeds about 1000.
- Thurs July 2. Fair and moderately warm. I went to John Cook's in eve. Felicia at Hospital John in Yorkton. boys took me for drive and home.
- Fri July 3. Fine and bright, cool. I went to Toronto first for since 10 June Mrs D. and I for berries 20 cts now. started rain at 10 P.M.
- Sat July 4. Fine and sultry after heavy rain in the night. Mr. C.
Mrs Davidson and I at Races. games afternoon, eve, at Annies
- Sun July 5. Fine and quite hot. at morning church. Mrs D. and I for a walk then Mr Ashby took us for a drive in evening.
- Mon July 6. Fine and ^{very very} warm, at barn raising at W. Balls.
- Tue July 7. Rained last night, and drizzling all morning Mrs D.
ironing here. cutting out and making stripe dress.
- Wed July 8. Fine and warm. men rodding water pipes, at ball game. Concord won from Thornhill. Lizzie and children came out.