

April 27th. Still very cold with strong north west winds a few Snow flurries

April 28th. Cloudy & some milder & some rain.
finished transplanting
Tomatoes. about 8000
half of them in  $4\frac{1}{2}$  in boxes started digging straw berry plants.

April 29th. Fair but not very warm. cleaning strawberry plants a
worse job than digging
them

April 30 Sunday. Partly cloudy and milder
home all day. but
the children went to Sunday school.
