

Sunday November 2nd

Trank went down to church and Sunday school, nobody else instead. After breakfast I did up all the chores and about half went down this morning. Mr. Buck came over and got Dad past eleven went out and plowed a little, Hubby came over with to go down and see his cow which he thought was sick but his guns before dinner but didn't get a shot at any thing, old Jonas which was quite well when Dad got there. I did chores and came back again and he & Hubby husked all the after noon and got Dick slept till dinner. This after noon Mr. Buechy came on well. Lon. Abbot said this morning that he might get one of the over and stayed quite awhile and to night Dad and I went Bushie to come up and help husk for us. Dad and I both went down to church, Dick was down to Hubby's tea, and went to church after wards. We stopped in at Hubby's on our way down and took him the "Every body's Magazine" that Auntie Ulice has been sending us all year. She said he might he over to husk corn to morrow. This has been a day of disasters, when Dad first went out this morning he found one of his pigs all in and the others going for it. He carried it over to the barn and late came to the conclusion that its leg was broken up in the will have to kill it to morrow. He also found the old gobbler sick and diagnosed the case as black-head, he died this after noon. Enah considered he was worth five dollars. Then we noticed a big hard lump under Queenie's jaw to night which Dad says is very like distemper although she has no cough. I noticed a small lump there some time ago but thought nothing of it. Lovely day much milder

Monday November 3rd

I didn't do any chores before breakfast but wrote to Auntie. After breakfast I did up all the chores and about half went down this morning. Mr. Buck came over and got Dad past eleven went out and plowed a little, Hubby came over with to go down and see his cow which he thought was sick but his guns before dinner but didn't get a shot at any thing, old Jonas which was quite well when Dad got there. I did chores and came back again and he & Hubby husked all the after noon and got Dick slept till dinner. This after noon Mr. Buechy came on well. Lon. Abbot said this morning that he might get one of the over and stayed quite awhile and to night Dad and I went Bushie to come up and help husk for us. Dad and I both went down to church, Dick was down to Hubby's tea, and went to church after wards. We stopped in at Hubby's on our way down and took him the "Every body's Magazine" that Auntie Ulice has been sending us all year. She said he might he over to husk corn to morrow. This has been a day of disasters, when Dad first went out this morning he found one of his pigs all in and the others going for it. He carried it over to the barn and late came to the conclusion that its leg was broken up in the will have to kill it to morrow. He also found the old gobbler sick and diagnosed the case as black-head, he died this after noon. Enah considered he was worth five dollars. Then we noticed a big hard lump under Queenie's jaw to night which Dad says is very like distemper although she has no cough. I noticed a small lump there some time ago but thought nothing of it. Lovely day much milder

Tuesday November 4th

Dad plowed all day to day and is nearly over to the road fence. I did chores this morning and transplanted the peony roots which I put in the garden the day Walter went away. This after noon I pulled all the carrots and beets and nearly all the onions, we piled the carrots and beets in a pile to night and covered