

Camden Gore June 1883

Tue Jun 20th cloudy and cool. I was over the river to Nelson's Mill helping to load saw dust for the road John drawing dust for the road

Thu Jun 21st clear part of the day and warm was mowing down weed in the fore noon after noon piling manure, John drawing sawdust for the road

Fri Jun 22nd clear and hot, digging a ditch on the side of the lane, John commenced cultivating corn

Sat Jun 23rd clear part of the day and hot I and Walter hoeing corn, John cultivating

Sun Jun 24th cloudy part of the day & hot

Mon Jun 25th cloudy was working at the corn

Tue Jun 26th cloudy went to Florence this fore noon, after noon the boys and I was hoeing

Wed Jun 27th cloudy very heavy rain this evening, ditches and creeks full of water - working at the corn until the rain came

Albert Peterson helping this fore noon

Thu Jun 28th cloudy most of the day, clear and hot this evening, heavy rain last night the ground dreadfully wet, went over the river and salted the young cattle this fore noon after noon rubbing sprouts of pottal

Camden Gore June 1883

Fri Jun 29th clear and hot, the boys and I was hoeing most of the day, the ground very wet, water in the low places from six to ten inches deep, could only hoe on the high sand knolls.

Sat Jun 30th clear and cool, a pleasant day, the boys and I was hoeing this fore noon, after noon the boys away playing ball, Anne and I and I went to Thamesville.

Sun July 1st clear part of the day & pleasant - attended Cass Meeting Sab bath school and preaching

Mon July 2nd cloudy and thunder in the fore noon after noon clear and very hot we was cultivating and hoeing corn

Tue July 3rd thunder clouds and very hot, was hoeing corn this fore noon, after noon drawing out manure

Wed July 4th cloudy and thunder showers in the after noon, we were drawing out manure until the wind and rain came very high wind for a few minutes

Thu July 5th cloudy and thunder fore part of the day, and very hot, fore part of the day repairing harness, latter part drawing manure