Wed 7

Jan 7th 1874

Rained all day and every thing is as icy as can be.
Threshed out 24 1/2 Bush of corn. & Lewis Brown and wife and Les and Sam Hutton were here for tea.
Went to S. Falls with the corn. Sold it at Bates old mill for 60 cents per bush $14.70. Rained in the forenoon. Threshed corn in afternoon. Left my wattle at Mr Stacey's to get cleaned for which he charged me $1.00 Bought me a book it cost 15 cents
Received from the Church $8.50. and there is $9.50 more on due.
I had $1.50. - A. J. - R. Johnston brought it down yesterday.

A fraction remarking that a hot flat-iron was good to keep the feet warm in winter, was answered by a blooming young lady, that very great improvement had been discovered on that invention.
