

Sun July 8

Fine but extremely warm at morning church, and for a short walk in eve. hottest day of season over 90°

Mon July 9.

A warm sultry day, thunder storm about six P.M. so Annie did not come home. I called in evening, Corraire stayed here.

Tue July 10.

Fine clear and moderately warm. I went to Toronto, at the Island, and had lunch and tea down town. Annie came home and brought children.

Wed July 11.

Fine bright and warm, a perfect day. United. S.S. picnic at Elm Park, Woodbridge. I called to see Mrs Smellie.

Thur July 12.

Fine bright and warm but not extreme, a perfect th day. Mrs Davidson and children in Toronto. I went to N.T. in the evening took white dress back to be fixed. called to see Dr and Mrs Delaporte. Children ^{went} home.

Fri July 13.

Dull and cool, we were at Siggies for lunch, also the Boyle family. Started to rain gently as we came home, then about 8 P.M. rained heavily and continued most of night. I weigh 135 - A.B. weigh 137.

Sat July 14.

Fair but very wet and damp. Siggie and children came to Annie's, last strawberries. Mrs S. Bryant died.

Sun July 15.

Fine at first. I went to church for a walk in afternoon. Siggie and children went home. Came heavy rain in evening.

Mon July 16.

Fine and moderately warm. I made fugi white slip.

Tue July 17.

Very, very warm. I went to Mrs Bryant's funeral, up at the Cemetery in the evening.