

Friday April 1, 1921.

I delivered mail on the whole route except the Downline.

When I got home in the evening John was here; he said that Delgado took him round the neighborhood and down to Kate's for dinner.

The day was fine and the roads are beginning to dry.

Saturday April 2, 1921.

John came here last evening and and started back on the early car this morning.

I delivered mail on the whole route this today.

The day was fine and the roads are getting quite dry.

Sunday April 3, 1921.

~~My~~ We all went to Church in the morning.

Charlie was here and went away on the noon car.

Rev. M. C. Tait preached and Rev. N. Lindsay preached at W-burg.

The day was fine and the roads are drying fast.
