

December, 1931.

7 Monday. Cold & very stormy. Walter went to Elmira with Noah Miller this morning. Our lane is badly drifted with snow. Walter & Vernon got two fat pigs at Sam Horst's this afternoon.

8 Tuesday. Fair and cold. Walter butchered 2 pigs today one for Mrs. J. D. Miller of Elmira and Jim Miller of Glenallen and the other one for Harry Taylor of Drayton.

9 Wednesday. Milder. Snowed & rained nearly all day. There was a great slaughter of old horses in King's brush today and they killed ten. The following men from the fox ranch were here for dinner - Charles & Bert Hilliard, Harry Smith, Frank Bowers and John Dease. Sam Horst took Mrs. Miller's meat along to Elmira for Walter.
