TORONTO Goodwood FLASHES

Walter Davey
8 Stanton Ave
Toronto.

Attending a skating party at Stouffville Miss Marie Feren picked up a pocket book containing a sum of money. No doubt the owner will claim it as Miss Feren reported the matter.

We appreciate all news sent to us by Sunday afternoon so that it can be rushed into the issue for that week. If you write make sure your mail will reach us Saturday's mail, or if you phone do so by Sunday afternoon when we are preparing our budget.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee of Stouffville were callers at the Correspondent's home the other day.

Many people are finding it handy to get extra copies of The Tribune at Watson's store in Goodwood. Often a person wishes to send an extra to a friend.

Wood by the car load is reaching George Todd at Goodwood from the north country.

We bid the following happy birthday greetings: Mrs. Dudley White, Stanley Van Wick, Altona; Alfred Pugh, Stouffville; Mrs. Stanley Norton, Sunderland; Mrs. Don Fraser, Stouffville; Mabel Weir, Uxbridge; Mrs. Hoyle Brethour, 2nd concession; Ellmore Anthony, Locust Hill; Mrs. Thos. Watson, Marsh Hill; Dorothy Harlock, Dorothy Hockley, Edmund Warden, Garry Evans, Jack Keller, Elmer Evans, all of Claremont district; Ella Symes, Reuben Maye, Goodwood; Leslie Reid, Vallentyne.

Mrs. Bewell of Unionville is now in Toronto on a visit which we hope she will thoroughly enjoy.

When our phone tingled the other day we were pleased to hear the cheerio of Fred Middleton who rushed down from Whitby for a day. We hear that he cannot stay away from the blonde lassie too long, but Fred didn't tell us that, oh no.

We learn from Goodwood that everybody is taking to skating. Well, all, and that is fine. One of these get up a hockey team and to the Maple Leafs.

TAKES ON WAR JOB

Mrs. Oswald Jacoby, wife of the bridge expert and a tennis star and bridge expert in her own right, is working at the Dallas plant of North American Aviation as her contribution to the U.S. war effort. She is employed in the hydraulics sub-assembly department.

faithful Sunday School Superintendent.

Mr. Grant Morley attended the wedding of his cousin, Capt. (Dr.) Ross Covey, R.C.D.C., and Miss Dorothy Chester of Toronto, on Jan. 12.

Owing to the rain and ice driving was dangerous on Sunday. Some accidents occurred near the subway on the fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gordon of Queensville called on Mr. and Mrs. Russel Sproxton and family on Sunday.
