

September, 1929

1 Sunday. Very hot & sultry.
Walter & Ella went to Clifford today
~~and~~ with Wilfrid, Miriam, and Grandpa & Grandma Maurer and attended the funeral of Mrs. Krueger.
We had our dinner at Klein's and our tea at Uncle Jake Maurer's.
We sat on the road ^{for an hour} about a mile north of Alma while Wilfrid was cheerfully changing a tire.
but arrived home at 10 p.m.

2 Monday. Hot day.
The men were plowing all day.
Ella did the washing and called at Enoch Schneider's this afternoon.

3 Tuesday. Very hot.
Enoch Schneider took Ella & Annie to Elmira this morning and they took the bus from there to the C. N. E. at Toronto. They spent the whole day on the grounds, saw the Grand Stand Spectacle accompanied by A.
Wilkinson and reached home at 3.30 a.m.
as the bus wasn't working very well.