

Thursday May 4, 1922.

I went over and helped Kent to line out the fence row.

The day was cloudy.

Friday May 5, 1922

I took Dick down to the pasture and took Gip back.

Kent took Lloyd and the car and had some trouble to get him started. Paid Kent for winter work in fuel $3.00 and on clearing land and plowing 5.00

The day was fine.

Saturday May 6, 1922.

In the forenoon John and I took rails away from the line fence.

In the afternoon I worked at making out my income tax report.

The day was cloudy.

Sunday May 7, 1922.

Mabel and I went to Church and back on the car; the others stayed at home.

Kent came back from Longstaff last night and Charlie and Lotts came last night and stayed till evening. Harold Cllette came and took away is all Langstaffs paid him $5.00 for this job of fencing.