November FRIDAY 14 1919

Very Cold day with light flurries of Snow I drought in the Hackings and put them in the Barn and put turnips in the cellar the rest of the day froze very hard all day over to Office untill late tonight

November SATURDAY 15 1919

cool day but fine ? fixed up the stove pipes for the dining room stove in the forenoon and went up to Alfred Kenny in the afternoon to the Shooting match. got one Goose! Gerald and Mrs Lockhill came up tonight after Nellie, received from Clint Dawson $5.00 Balance due on Horse Deal.