W. 12th. Paid Fritz Willing Six Dollars & a half for thrashing pease & wheat. Let Robert have one hundred & twenty five Dollars for which I took his note due a year hence with six per cent. int.
Robert agreed with Duncan Currie of Port Elgin about a new barn. Currie is to build him a barn which is not to be surpassed in Saugum for the sum of One hundred and twenty Dollars ~~half~~ Fifty Dollars to be paid down when the lumber is got out and the balance when the barn is finished. Currie is to get out the lumber frame and cover it and lay the thrashing floor.
